BITS AND PIECES

And so another season comes to an end. This will be the last issue of the newsletter until October when once again we will be revving up for another Trendsetter Trunk Show in November

It looks like our yarn bombing has had a positive effect. With the increased visibility of the courtyard it would seem the city of La Quinta noticed things that needed attention. The concrete planter around the statue has been redone and the benches have been painted a bright blue.

There are beautiful new flowers in the pots as well. It looks great.

The Haven enthusiasm is infectious. Judi L has been bringing her friend Pam B to do her needlepoint. Pam has decided she is inspired and now will take some knitting lessons. The bug is definitely contagious!

Congratulations to some Haven family grads. Barbara B was on hand in Rhode Island to watch her granddaughter graduate Summa Cum Laude in two majors, Nursing and Spanish

Kait was in NY to watch her daughter receive her Masters Degree in Clinical Psychology

It's so great that they were able to be there in person.

We had a special visitor this month. Our dear Jean's husband stopped in to say hello to all of her friends at the Haven. She will forever be in our hearts. Thanks Chris, for stopping in to say hello.

BITS AND PIECES

We also saw the return of another old friend. Lorita K came to the Haven after a long absence. She looks great and is as joyful as ever. Thanks Judi L (and hubby Rick) for bringing her.

We can't forget to mention our summer birthdays. It really does cut down on the whining!

July	3	Mary Chavin
	8	Mary Ann Johnson
	9	Dolores Bernard
	11	Carol Sacks
	15	Mary Ann Daly
	28	Linda Mitchell

Aug	8	Jeannie Wixon

BITS AND PIECES

Although we love our project bags, please remember that our space is limited. The under-table hooks have really helped but we still have a lot of “spread”

Happy May birthdays. Barbara B, BB and Renee were present for our monthly celebration.

VENDOR UPDATE

JUST JAN DESIGNS

Knitting continues all year round, even when we're traveling! Keep your row counters and scissors or cutters readily available. Place them on a wristlet or neck lanyard, maybe alongside your cell phone! If you don't already have these handy tools to take along, I have a limited supply, so just come in or give me a call.

I'm here all summer, so if there's a new technique you want to learn, project you need to restart or get help with, schedule a private class!

The new price increase from Trendsetter is the first in over 15 years. I have a good supply on the shelves of many of your favorites, including AM Cashmere 16 Fine, Cotton Hair, Woolstar, Merino 6 and Cool Merino. My prices for stock on hand will stay the same until July 1, so if there's anything you've had on your wish list, just contact me! Any new orders will be at the higher price.

Happy summer knitting! We love show & tell, so please send along pictures!!!

JUST FOR FUN

Signing off for the season, we hope everyone has a safe and fun summer. We look forward to pictures and stories in the fall

Remember, the next issue of this newsletter is October 2025.
