BITS AND PIECES

Spring has sprung as evidenced by the yarn bombing outside the Haven. Gilda T outdid herself with the help of new member Linda M. Linda jumped in head first and rivals Gilda in her energy and craftiness!

Take some time to come see the results of hours of "pom pomming", Toots 2.0 and her new family of Bubbas. The Haven floor may never recover from the glitter.

Yarn bombing has become a tradition as we approach Spring and the March Trendsetter Trunk Show. It continues to draw people in and at any time you can see people strolling by, checking it out and snapping pictures.

Keep March 13-14 free for some yarn squishing and browsing new patterns at the Trunk Show. See details on the Vendor Update page of this issue. As usual we will have raffle prizes and refreshments. We are anticipating some new and beautiful yarns and patterns

The butterfly group knit is coming along. It's hard to choose a favorite from all the incredible yarn choices.

The Haven is fortunate to have so many devoted members. Their generosity keeps us going. Carol S keeps us in paper goods and snacks, Edith C does all our photo copies (among her other generosityes).

Alice E makes our punch cards and many others continue to donate time and supplies so we don't have to use Haven funds. So thanks to everyone for keeping us going.

BITS AND PIECES

We are so proud of Edith and husband Philip of SiBon Belgian Bistro. They were recently awarded a Rammy Award in Rancho Mirage. The Rammy Awards honor exceptional business and community leaders who are making a meaningful impact in Rancho Mirage. The awards celebrate excellence, leadership, and the spirit of the local business community. Please help us congratulate them on this well deserved honor.

Hard at work on the butterfly shawl and enjoying (almost) every minute of it!

BITS AND PIECES

A newly built Toots, now known as Toots 2.0 is attracting a lot of people with cameras. New addition of Bubba and his family are also posing for photos

Toots 2.0 was polite to this little visitor, the granddaughter of member Linda M. Toots, being the social butterfly that she is she joined the volunteers from the La Quinta Library for tea last week.

Thanks, Gilda for your tireless efforts and creativity and to all who helped along the way
